“a bridge to the future”

Please review the information that is being used on both the website and in our brochures and make any corrections including the description of your business or organization. Use the back of the form if more space is needed.

We would love to have more participation at monthly meetings and at our various events. Please consider how you could make a difference by helping our organization as well as our communities continue to grow and improve. Be sure to also consider advertising in our Business Directory & Business Guide. It will be a wonderful resource both online and in print!

Remember that paid ads are available via our new and improved website! Full color ads may link to your website or social media page, plus you can decide which page of the website you'd like your ad featured on.

Please return your notice with any corrections and your check in the enclosed envelope.
